

Every year Gallup comes out with the Confidence in Institutions survey. The survey lists the confidence American have in specific professions. I have posted the seven worst and seven highest by election year. To see all the others go here.

Institution	2020	2016	2012
Congress	13%	9%	13%
Internet News	16	NA	NA
Television News	18	21	21
Big Business	19	18	21
Criminal Justice System	24	23	29
Newspaper news	24	20	25
Presidency	39	36	37
Supreme Court	40	39	41
Public Schools	41	30	29
Church	42	41	42

Police	48	56	56
Medial System	51	39	41
The Military	72	73	75
Small Business	75	68	63

Journalism combined (Internet, TV, newspaper) hovers around 19% tied with Big Business.

The one thing that seemed to have taken a big leap up wards was Small Business. I suspect that has a lot to do with the Trump business tax reduction. Medical System seems to have improved too probably due to the CCP Virus.

I have no clue nor will venture a guess however, Public Schools has taken a large up-tick. I truly do not know why as many of my friend's children are home schooled.

Well there you go.
