

This comes from site sponsor Ammo.com. Hope you got what you needed when you did. Ain't much left now. -NCS

We know you probably have election fatigue already, so we'll keep it brief: Ammo.com finds itself in the crosshairs of one of our country's major political parties. That's not hyperbole.

According to Joe Biden's own website, he plans to put us out of business:

"End the online sale of firearms and ammunitions. Biden will enact legislation to prohibit all online sales of firearms, ammunition, kits, and gun parts."

We're not telling you who you should vote for, but we do want to inform you of Joe Biden and the Democratic Party's current position on these Second Amendment issues from the candidate who proudly proclaims:

"In 1994, Biden - along with Senator Dianne Feinstein - secured the passage of 10-year bans on "assault weapons" and high-capacity magazines. As president, Joe Biden will defeat the NRA again."

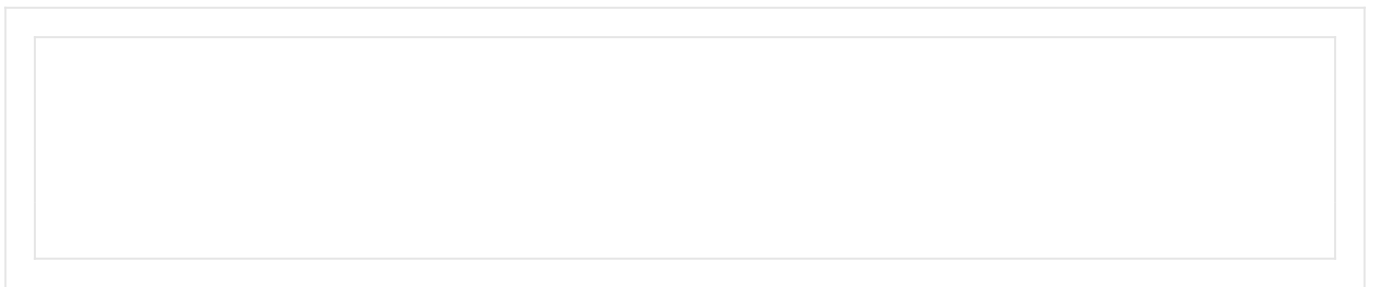

No matter who you vote for, you need to know that your right to keep and bear arms peaceably is on the line in this election. Here's what to do:

1. Make sure you're registered to vote. Even if you "know" you are, double check. And if you're not, register - and soon, because registration deadlines are fast approaching. Click here to see your home state's voter registration deadline.
2. Vote on November 3rd.
3. Consider becoming a poll worker. There is a serious shortage this year due to COVID-19.

Contact your local election office to find out more.

4. Don't forget to contact down-ballot candidates to let them know, in a respectful way, how you feel about this important issue.

Regardless of what you decide, we appreciate your continued support.
