

Just think, your Special Preparedness Partisan will receive daily, Monday thru Friday the most up to date news from some of the best authors gathered under one roof.

American Partisan is made up of individual authors and experts in their respective fields. They've joined to provide solid analysis, how-to, and other information for those interested in holding on to Western Civilization.

From think pieces to gear reviews, firearms, survivalism, intelligence, communications, homesteading, and everything in between. American Partisan brings the best of the best under one roof since May 2018. American Partisan's readership has steadily grown to now averaging over 125,000 visits per month.

An expanding field of experts providing original, actionable content American Partisan is the fastest-growing site for those interested in tactics, communications, survival, intelligence, critical analysis, and more. Professional, work- and family-safe content.

Go here sign up that special person for a yearly subscription.